Hello Kim. I lost my sister and have been dealing with this along with my health issues. Due to some recent findings, I have not been released to go home. I sincerely wish that I was in a position to get this over with. I am looking to contact an attorney to help me with all of this. But, I need to get back home to get together paperwork and documents that he will need to see. So sadly I do ask that you will please understand what I'm going through and why I can't speed this along to everybody's satisfaction. So, therefore once again I am asking for a continuance. Battling cancer is not easily predicted or controlled. I'm doing the best that I can with my health being what it is. That and along with grieving the loss of my only sister.

Sincerely,
Janet Parks
