CROSS-EXAMINATION AND ORDER OF OPENING

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission, by and through counsel, and on behalf of the parties pursuant to the Commission’s April 29, 2020 Order Setting a Procedural Schedule Including a Limited Evidentiary Hearing on Remand (Order) and states as follows:

LIST OF ISSUES

1. What is the amount of refund, if any, due to ratepayers for replacement of cast iron and bare steel mains and service lines not shown to be worn out or deteriorated?
2. By what method should any refund be returned to ratepayers?
3. Does due process require the consideration of the additional evidence submitted by the Company to demonstrate the condition of its cast iron and bare steel facilities?<sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> The Office of Public Counsel contends that this is not a proper issue given the Commission’s prior rulings in this case and the Western District’s directions on remand; however, the OPC will respect Spire’s right to raise such issues as it deems necessary.
