Re: Ag Processing v. KCP&L Greater Missouri Operations
Company, File No. HC-2012-0259 consolidated with HC-2010-0235

Dear Secretary Woodruff:

With this letter I am transmitting through EFIS the Prepared Supplemental Direct Testimony of Donald E. Johnstone with Schedules Attached. This filing is being made in this consolidated file or docket pursuant to the schedule established therein and in the file or docket number as directed by the Commission, but is made without prejudice to the position of my client Ag Processing Inc a Cooperative that the consolidation of these two matters was unlawful and unreasonable and in excess of an earlier mandate from a court. Said Order is being challenged in an appeal lodged with the Missouri Court of Appeals and also in an application for a Writ of Prohibition in the same court. Said Writ Application was today denied without prejudice by that Court pending its dealing with the pending appeal which has been separately filed.

Sincerely yours,

FINNEGAN, CONRAD & PETERSON, L.C.
