PHILIP OLSON,

Complainant,

v.

KANSAS CITY POWER & LIGHT COMPANY,

Respondent.

Missouri Public
Service Commission

Case No. EC-2000-614

JOINT MOTION TO DISMISS COMPLAINT

Comes now Complainant, Philip Olson, pro se, and Kansas City Power & Light Company, by and through its attorney, and moves the Commission to dismiss the above-captioned proceeding, without hearing by the Commission, due to the fact that the parties have reached an agreement which resolves all issues and leaves no issues in dispute. A copy of Respondent's letter to Complainant is attached to this Motion and made a part thereof, setting forth the terms and conditions of the agreement of the parties which control the payment and conditions of future service involving the disputed arrears.

The parties seek to apprise the Commission of the agreement reached which renders this Commission Complaint moot.

WHEREFORE, Complainant and Respondent pray for an Order of the Commission dismissing the Complaint without hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

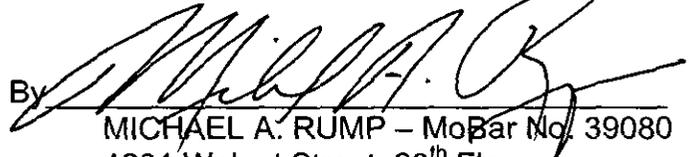

KANSAS CITY POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

Re: Olson v. KCPL, Case No. EC-2000-614

Dear Mr. Olson:

This will confirm our telephone conversation of Friday, January 5, 2001, and the agreement reached to compromise the above-captioned complaint pending before the Missouri Public Service Commission (MPSC). Under this agreement you will pay $500 and KCPL will waive any interest and penalty on the disputed amount. If you will forward your payment to me, I will see that it is processed. This agreement concerns the disputed bill as described in your complaint and does not include any amount due for current usage.

I will be preparing a pleading to file with the MPSC to formally dismiss the complaint. I will forward it to you in the near future. Please call me if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,
