3. As an electric utility, AmerenUE has an interest in this case that is different from that of the general public and which may be adversely affected by a final order arising from this case. In particular, AmerenUE could be directly affected by the Commission's decision respecting whether or not to adopt the time-based metering and communications standard that is the subject of this case. Moreover, AmerenUE's participation in this case will serve the public interest because it will afford AmerenUE the opportunity to provide the Commission with useful and relevant information relating to the issues in this case as the Commission deliberates with respect to whether to adopt the subject standard.

4. At this time, AmerenUE is unable to state its position on the issues presented in this case.

WHEREFORE, AmerenUE respectfully requests that the Commission grant its Application for Intervention and that it be made a party hereto with all rights to participate in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

SMITH LEWIS, LLP
