Amy Jo Hollander and William W. Hollander's

Motion to Intervene

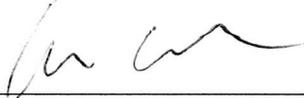

Come now Movants Amy Jo Hollander and William W. Hollander and state as follows for their Motion to Intervene.

1. Movants are individuals who own an interest in certain parcels of farm land in Audrain County, Missouri.
2. The name, mailing address, email address and telephone number of Movant's counsel is stated below herein.
3. Movants do and will continue to object, and vigorously oppose Grain Belt's Application in this case, for good and valid reasons.
4. Movants own certain interests in real estate in Southern Audrain County, which stands in the proposed path of this unwelcome proposed electrical line route.
5. Movant William W. Hollander holds an interest as an heir, to the adjoining parcel.
6. For the reasons stated herein, Movants have substantial interests at stake in this proceeding which are different in multiple regards from that of the general public. All of the Movants substantial interests herein will be adversely and materially, negatively, impacted if Grain Belt is granted this relief they seek herein.

7. Movants interests herein are unique to them and Movants should be allowed to intervene in this matter.

WHEREFORE, Movants request the Commission grant them leave to intervene herein.
