Dear Mr. Roberts:

mx-2003-0187

I am writing to you concerning the proposed inspection fees. Our company does not feel that this should be passed on to the retailers. If a consumer has a legitimate complaint he or she should be willing to compensate your staff just as they would an attorney.

Our industry has had to cut back due to fewer sales. There are other ways to curb your budget. We are already paying a $30.00 fee per home that is shipped to Missouri.

The proposed fee would give the way to many frivolous complaints and allow you to charge a retailer for each and every complaint and re-inspection. Most of the complaints can be worked out with the manufacturer and the retailer in a timely matter if allowed to.

I feel that this would open the way for more proposals and fee increases to the retailers. This would increase prices to our customers. Our industry is in the affordable housing market. We would like to keep it that way.

Sincerely,

Theresa Dalton
Corporate Secretary
