SBC MISSOURI'S RESPONSE

The Missouri Public Service Commission ("Commission") should not entertain Northeast's and Chariton Valley's request for the Commission to ignore its own rules and constitutional due process requirements.³

Here, Northeast and Chariton Valley want (1) to hold SBC Missouri⁴ responsible for traffic that it did not originate; (2) to conduct negotiations with the other Respondents without including SBC Missouri; (3) to have the Commission adopt their stipulation (which has no factual support but is simply an agreed resolution between a few parties in the case) without holding a hearing or giving SBC Missouri an opportunity to be heard; and (4) to use the stipulation to enforce retroactive liability against SBC Missouri.

¹ Northeast Missouri Rural Telephone Company will be referred to in this pleading as "Northeast."

² Chariton Valley Telephone Corporation will be referred to in this pleading as "Chariton Valley." ³ See, Reply of Northeast and Chariton Valley to SBC, filed May 21, 2004 in Case No. TC-2002-57.

Northeast's and Chariton Valley's approach is inconsistent with mandatory Commission rules and fundamental constitutional due process requirements and should be rejected. Instead, the Commission should issue an Order scheduling a telephonic prehearing conference to establish a procedural schedule for the resolution of the remaining issues in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE, L.P.
