Case No. TC-2000-226

RESPONSE OF SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY TO MOTIONS TO CONSOLIDATE COMPLAINT CASES

COMES NOW Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWBT), and for its Response to MCI WorldCom Communications, Inc.'s (WorldCom's) and Brooks Fiber Communication of Missouri, Inc.'s (Brooks') Motions to Consolidate, states to the Missouri Public Service Commission (Commission) as follows:

1. SWBT does not oppose WorldCom's and Brooks' Motions to Consolidate.

WorldCom's and Brooks' Complaints raise the same issue -- whether the Commission should classify Internet traffic as "local" traffic under separate interconnection agreements with SWBT which were entered into in 1996 (MFS) and early 1997 (Brooks) pursuant to the federal Telecommunications Act of 1996. SWBT has consistently maintained and the FCC has recently reaffirmed that Internet traffic is not local, but rather interstate and interexchange in nature, subject to the jurisdiction of the FCC. In its Order Clarifying Arbitration Order in the Birch Telecom case,<sup>1</sup> the Commission agreed that Internet traffic is subject to the primary jurisdiction of the FCC and was not subject to local reciprocal compensation. Inasmuch as the underlying issue in both the MCI and Brooks complaints appears to be the same, however, SWBT sees no reason why the Commission may not resolve both complaints in the same proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY
