STAFF'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission (Staff) and for its Motion for Reconsideration to the Missouri Public Service Commission's (Commission), states as follows:

1.       Staff is concerned that the Report and Order issued on August 18, 2010, effective August 28, 2010, does not appear to reflect the Agenda discussion and majority vote that the Commission has jurisdiction over the availability fees at issue in this case from the August 4 and 18, 2010, Agenda sessions.

2.       Staff directs the Commission to the Report and Order at page 103 that states "the Commission concludes that it should assert jurisdiction over availability fees."<sup>1</sup> Staff was unable to find a sentence in the Report and Order that clearly and unmistakably states that the Commission has jurisdiction of the availability fees in this matter.

3.       Staff seeks reconsideration to have the Commission's Report and Order accurately reflect the Agenda discussions, in which the majority of the Commissioners stated that the Commission did have jurisdiction over availability fees, meaning the availability fees at issue in this case.

WHEREFORE, Staff respectfully submits its Motion for Reconsideration.
