

Class Cost of Service Studies Agreement

In order to improve the reliability of Class Cost-of-Service Studies, Missouri Gas Utility, Inc. shall supply the following information, which is related to the Cost-of-Service Classes listed below, to the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission and to the Office of Public Counsel. This information shall be provided along with the filing of Direct Testimony by the Company in MGU's next formal rate case or along with the initiating letter of MGU's next informal rate case:

Cost-of-Service classes:

General Service
Commercial Service
Large-Volume Service
Interruptible Sales Service
Transportation Service

Distribution Meters/Regulators:

"Typical" installations for each class – type, capacity, cost
Trended replacement cost information – to the extent it can be obtained – type, capacity, material, cost
Embedded cost information – to the extent it can be obtained – size, capacity, original cost, age

Distribution Services:

"Typical" installations for each class – diameter, length, installed cost
Trended replacement cost information – to the extent it can be obtained – diameter, material, installed cost
Embedded cost information – to the extent it can be obtained – diameter, length, material, original cost, age

Distribution Mains:

Embedded cost information – to the extent it can be obtained – diameter, length, material, original cost, age, operating pressures and MAOP.

Special Studies:

Meter reading
Customer Billing and Collection
Customer Service and Informational expense

The Staff of the MPSC will provide the Company with its preferred form for this information.