

BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION
OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

In the Matter of the Determination of Prices of) Case No. TO-2002-397 Certain Unbundled Network Elements))

ORDER GRANTING ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

On April 3, 2002, Rebecca B. DeCook, a member of the Colorado Bar, filed her entry of appearance in this matter on behalf of AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. Although Ms. DeCook did not move for admission pro hac vice, the Commission will construe her entry of appearance as constituting such a motion. This is appropriate as Ms. DeCook's entry of appearance contains all of the information required to support a motion for admission pro hac vice. No party has objected to Ms. DeCook's participation herein and the interval for doing so has expired.

The entry of appearance states that Ms. DeCook is a member of the Bar of Colorado and that she is admitted to practice before state and federal courts in that jurisdiction; that she is a member of AT&T's Denver Legal Department; that neither she nor any member of her firm are disqualified from appearing in any court; and that she has associated with Mr. J. Steve Weber, a Missouri attorney, for the purposes of this action. The Commission will grant the motion for admission pro hac vice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That Rebecca B. DeCook is granted admission pro hac vice, subject to the terms and conditions imposed on such admission by the Rules of the Supreme Court of Missouri.

2. That this order shall become effective on April 15, 2002.
