NOTICE AND ORDER EXTENDING EFFECTIVE DATE

Issue Date: June 20, 2011

Effective Date: June 20, 2011

The Missouri Public Service Commission is directing that notice be given to certain county clerks and extending the effective date of the Order Granting Application with Conditions (“order”).

This action addresses an application to transfer assets. The application is subject to statutes requiring notice of information on revenue impacts (“notice”). Such notice is due the clerk of any county containing any part of any affected political subdivision. An affected political subdivision is one in which an asset subject to the application is located.¹ Applicants disclosed such counties in Aqua Missouri, Inc.’s Response to Commission Order of April 8, 2011,² and a revenue impact of $1,270 in property taxes is possible according to Staff’s Recommendation.³ The order issued on June 15, with an effective date of June 25.

But on June 20, the Commission’s Data Center informed the Commission that notice to affected political subdivisions did not issue. Therefore, the

² Filed on April 12. All dates are in 2011.

³ Filed on June 10.

Commission will direct such notice as the statute requires. The Commission will also extend the order's effective date to allow an opportunity for any affected political subdivision to file a motion for rehearing.⁴

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The Commission's Data Center shall immediately transmit information to the clerks of the following counties: Cole, Callaway, Miller, and Osage.
2. The information shall consist of this notice and order, the application, Staff's Recommendation, and the Order Granting Application with Conditions.
3. Any motion for rehearing of the Order Granting Application with Conditions is due on June 28, 2011.
4. The effective date of the Order Granting Application with Conditions is extended to June 29, 2011.
5. This order shall become effective immediately upon issuance.
