To Whom It May Concern:

On April 19, 2001, Convergent Communications Services, Inc. ("CCSI") filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection. On June 29, 2001, CCSI entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement pursuant to which CCSI sold its telecommunications business effective August 1, 2001. The sale was approved by the Bankruptcy Court on July 26, 2001. After Bankruptcy Court approval and consummation of the sale, CCSI ceased all business operations.

On April 17, 2002, the Court confirmed CCSI's Chapter 11 plan of liquidation (the "Plan"). The Plan created the CCSI Liquidating Trust and the assets and liabilities of CCSI were transferred to the CCSI Liquidating Trust. Pursuant to the Plan, I am the duly appointed and acting trustee of the CCSI Liquidating Trust. The CCSI Liquidating Trust was created to, among other things, liquidate the remaining assets of CCSI and to distribute funds held by the CCSI Liquidating Trust to the creditors of CCSI in accordance with the Plan. The CCSI Liquidating Trust is not and never has been an operating company and has never had regular employees.

Accordingly, CCSI is no longer providing exchange services in Missouri. If you have any questions regarding this matter, you may reach at the above listed address.

Very truly yours,

Craig A. Dais, trustee of the
CCSI Liquidating Trust
