NOTICE REGARDING MEDIATION

Issue Date: June 19, 2008

You are requested to attend a mediation session to be held on July 29, 2008, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., in room 208 of the University of Missouri, Columbia Law School. If you need directions to the law school please do not hesitate to contact Kennard Jones at 573-751-8518.

This mediation is a voluntary process and any party may end the mediation session at anytime for any reason. Ending the session will not be held against you.

The role of the mediator is to facilitate a discussion between the parties and help them reach a voluntary settlement. The mediator has no decision-making authority, is impartial, does not represent either party or give legal advice.

The mediator can not be compelled to disclose any information disclosed during the mediation. Additionally, the mediation proceedings shall be regarded as settlement negotiations. Any communication made during the process, not otherwise discoverable, shall be confidential and not admissible as evidence.

The mediator will not disclose any communication made during the mediation except as consented to by both parties or required by law.

Although many mediators charge an hourly rate for conducting mediations, there is no charge for mediations conducted for cases under the jurisdiction of the Missouri Public Service Commission.
