ordinarily extend that date by simply filing a letter,<sup>6</sup> as on April 5. But the tariff is now under suspension.

Suspension occurs pending:

. . . a hearing concerning the propriety of such [tariff] and the decision thereon . . . [<sup>7</sup>]

and lasts:

. . . not for a longer period than sixty days beyond the time when such [tariff] would otherwise go into effect [<sup>8</sup>]

The sixtieth day after the April 29 effective date was June 28.

[H]owever, if any such hearing cannot be concluded within the period of suspension, as above stated, the commission may, in its discretion, extend the time of suspension for a further period not exceeding ninety days. [<sup>9</sup>]

The Commission has not concluded the hearing within the period of suspension ordered on April 27. The ninetieth day after June 28 will be September 27.

But Level 3 seeks an extension only until August 28, and represents that no party objects to the motion, so the Commission will grant that extension.
