2ND CENTURY COMMUNICATIONS, INC. Missouri Public Service Commission

JOHN PRISCO, President, Chief Executive Officer & Acting Chief Financial Officer

John Prisco has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of 2nd Century Communications, Inc. ("2nd Century") since February 1999. In these capacities, Mr. Prisco oversees 2nd Century's operations and has direct responsibility for developing all fifty (50) of the company's operating areas. Mr. Prisco brings to 2nd Century more than twenty (20) years of experience in launching new telecommunications services. Mr. Prisco has been acting as Chief Financial Officer since August, 1999.

Prior to his positions with 2nd Century, Mr. Prisco held senior positions at Bell Atlantic, playing a leading role in strengthening market franchises and start-up ventures. As president of Bell Atlantic's CAI Wireless venture, he launched the nation's first wireless Internet access services in Boston, New York City and Rochester, NY., and established the nation's first wireless digital video systems in Boston and Norfolk, VA. Before that, Mr. Prisco managed the start-up phase of CellularVision's LMDS wireless cable television services. Mr. Prisco's first position at Bell Atlantic was as its vice president of marketing for the company's large business division.

Before joining Bell Atlantic, Mr. Prisco founded Penn Access Corporation, a competitive access provider based in Pittsburgh, PA. After five (5) years of operation, Prisco sold Penn Access to TCI in 1993.

Mr. Prisco received a Bachelors of Science degree in electrical engineering from Columbia University and a masters degree in electrical engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

VINCE ROCCA, *Vice President of Engineering and Chief Technology Officer

Vince Rocca is a co-founder of 2nd Century Communications, Inc. ("2nd Century") and serves as its Vice President of Engineering and Chief Technology Officer. Mr. Rocca has more than thirteen (13) years of telecommunications industry experience, and is responsible for 2nd Century's network platform development.

Prior to co-founding 2nd Century, Mr. Rocca was the Director of Strategic Planning at Intermedia Communications, Inc. ("Intermedia"). In that capacity, he evaluated new technologies for network deployment and guided vendors in the product development phase to better meet the needs of the company. Mr. Rocca also served as Intermedia's Director of Network Operations. In this capacity he managed Intermedia's frame relay network during the company's high-growth period from 1994 to 1996.

Mr. Rocca began his career as an engineer with the New Brunswick Telephone Company in New Brunswick, Canada, where he served as a transmission system engineer responsible for designing fiber optic, video and program audio networks.

Mr. Rocca graduated from the RCC School of Electronic Technology in Toronto, Canada.

CHARLOTTE BAKER, *Vice President of Marketing and Chief Marketing Officer

Charlotte Baker is a co-founder of 2nd Century Communications, Inc. ("2nd Century") and serves as its Chief Marketing Officer and its Vice President of Marketing. In this capacity, Ms. Baker oversees 2nd Century's product marketing, channel management and market planning organizations.

Before co-founding 2nd Century, Ms. Baker was the Senior Director of Strategic Planning at Intermedia Communications, Inc. ("Intermedia") where she played an instrumental role in positioning the company as more than a commodity transport provider. By continuously measuring Intermedia's product portfolio against the competitive environment, Ms. Baker identified strategic voids in the company and undertook to fill such voids via two (2) significant Intermedia acquisitions.

Prior to joining Intermedia in 1996, Ms. Baker worked on the fixed income sales and trading floor at Raymond James Financial. Before that, she was a product manager at Microsoft, conducting market research for their newly acquired FoxPro line of database software, and sold PBXs, LANs and advanced network products for GTE.

Ms. Baker received a Bachelors of Science degree in commerce with dual concentrations in marketing and MIS from the University of Virginia, and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Virginia's Darden Graduate School of Business.

MARK DAMICO, *Vice President of Business Operations

Mark Damico serves as 2nd Century Communications Inc.'s ("2nd Century's") Vice President of Business Operations. In this capacity, Mr. Damico is responsible for overseeing customer service, industry services and regulatory, network cost and administration and network operations.

Prior to joining 2nd Century, Mr. Damico was the senior director of access product marketing at Intermedia Communications, Inc. ("Intermedia"). From 1996 to 1997, Mr. Damico was responsible for the planning of the company's network, and from 1994 to 1996, he served as the director of network engineering. Prior to that time, Mr. Damico was responsible for directing Intermedia's company's customer service program.

Before joining Intermedia, Damico held several regional field operations positions with ATC/Microtel, as well as engineering positions with R-Tec Systems, a manufacturer of telecommunications equipment.

Mr. Damico received his associate's degree in electronics from the United Electronics Institute.

BEVERLY PRIVETTE, *Controller/Treasurer

Beverly Privette serves as the Controller and Treasurer for 2nd Century Communications, Inc. ("2nd Century"). In this capacity, she is responsible for the company's accounting functions and accounting systems.

Prior to joining 2nd Century, Ms. Privette held various positions with Intermedia Communications Inc. ("Intermedia"), including Controller and Director positions in regulatory relations, marketing, strategic planning, and finance. She has served in the capacities of Controller and Accounting and Finance Manager for a variety of service, finance, and international corporations.

Ms. Privette is a Certified Public Accountant and a graduate of East Tennessee State University.

JOYCE GAILEY, *Assistant Vice President, Industry Services Management

Joyce Gailey is the Assistant Vice President of Industry Services Management for 2nd Century Communications, Inc. ("2nd Century"). In this capacity, Ms. Gailey is responsible for 2nd Century's interconnection agreements and vendor selection relationships.

Prior to joining 2nd Century, Ms. Gailey was the Senior Director of Marketing for Strategic Partners at Intermedia Communications Inc., and held other management and technical positions with the company, including Regional Director for Special Projects. Ms. Gailey also has served in management and technical positions with AT&T, IBM, and two Regional Bell Operating Companies.

Ms. Gailey received a Bachelors of Arts degree from Georgia College.
