STAFF’S RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT SUBURBAN WATER AND SEWER
CO.’S OBJECTIONS TO STAFF’S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission (Staff) and for its Response to Respondent Suburban Water and Sewer Co.’s (Suburban) Objection to Staff’s First Set of Interrogatories respectfully states as follows:

General Objections

1. If a party withholds information on the basis of a claim of privilege or the work product doctrine, the party withholding the information must, without revealing the information claimed to be protected, “state information that will permit others to assess the applicability of the privilege or work product doctrine.” Missouri Rule of Civil Procedure 57.01(3). Suburban has not stated such information that will allow others to assess the applicability of the claimed privilege or the work product doctrine.

2. Commission Rule 4 CSR 2.090(1) provides that “discovery may be obtained by the same means and under the same conditions as in civil actions in the circuit court.” Rule 57 of the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure governs the scope and issuance of interrogatories. Staff’s First Set of Interrogatories does not impose greater or different obligations in discovery than are required by applicable Commission Rules, the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure, or case law.

3. Staff's First Set of Interrogatories requests information that is relevant to the subject matter of this action, is relevant to Staff's claim, and is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

4. Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague or ambiguous.

5. Staff submits that Suburban's ongoing discovery process should not operate to delay Staff's discovery in accordance with Missouri Rule of Civil Procedure 56.01(d). Suburban has a duty to seasonably amend its responses to Staff's First Set of Interrogatories "if the party learns that the response is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect and if the additional corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing" in accordance with Missouri Rule of Civil Procedure 56.01(e).

6. Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not call for legal argument, analysis, opinion, or conclusion.

7. Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not seek information that is a matter of public record or otherwise equally accessible to all parties. Suburban's contention that the requested information is publicly available is inconsistent with its claim of privilege and the work product doctrine.

Specific Objections

1. Paragraph 1 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague or overbroad. Paragraph 1 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not call for information that is outside the scope of what the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure allow.

2. Paragraph 2 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague or overbroad. Paragraph 2 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not call for information that is outside the scope of what the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure allow.

16. Paragraph 16 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague or overbroad. Paragraph 16 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not call for information that is outside the scope of what the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure allow.

17. Paragraph 17 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague. Paragraph 17 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not ask for a legal conclusion. Paragraph 17 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories requests information that is relevant to Staff's claim.

18. Paragraph 18 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague or overbroad. Paragraph 18 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not call for information that is outside the scope of what the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure allow.

19. Paragraph 19 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague. Paragraph 19 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not ask for a legal conclusion. Paragraph 19 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories requests information that is relevant to Staff's claim.

20. Paragraph 20 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague or overbroad. Paragraph 20 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not call for information that is outside the scope of what the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure allow.

21. Paragraph 21 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories is not vague. Paragraph 21 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories does not ask for a legal conclusion. Paragraph 21 of Staff's First Set of Interrogatories requests information that is relevant to Staff's claim.

22. Staff submits that a discovery conference the week of June 25 is the most expeditious way to resolve any remaining discovery disputes. Staff believes that a timely discovery conference is necessary because Staff has requested expedited treatment in this case. This conference cannot be scheduled on June 29, as undersigned counsel are scheduled to appear before Judge Crane in Boone County Circuit Court on that date.

WHEREFORE, Staff requests that the Commission overrule Suburban's Objections to Staff's First Set of Interrogatories. Staff further requests a discovery conference be held prior to June 29, 2007 in order to resolve any additional discovery disputes.

Respectfully submitted,
