SECTION 2- RULES AND REGULATIONS (CONT.)

- 2.16.1.A. Where the Company serves as the Resp. Org. for the Company's Inbound 800 Service customer, the Company will, at the customer's request, subscribe to 800 Directory Listing for 800 number(s) assigned to the customer. In the event that a customer transfers its 800 service to another Resp. Org., the Company shall cease to subscribe to 800 Directory Listing Service on behalf of the customer and the customer is responsible for assuring that 800 Directory Listing Service is maintained through the new Resp. Org. The customer is responsible for payment of any outstanding 800 Directory Listing charges, including any un-expired portion of any period applicable to such service, and the Company shall have no liability for any interruption or other delay, error, mistake, omission or other defect occurring in connection with the transfer of 800 Directory Listing responsibility.
- 2.16.1.B. In the event that a customer cancels its Hierholzer Communications Inc. Resp. Org. or Inbound 800 Service, the customer shall be responsible for all outstanding indebtedness to the company and any outstanding charges applicable to any service obtained by or on behalf of the customer by the Company.

2.17. Other Charges

The Company may adjust its rates and charges or impose additional rates and charges on its customers in order to recover amounts it is required by governmental or quasi-governmental authorities to collect from or pay to others in support of statutory or regulatory programs. Examples of such programs include, but are not limited to, the Universal Service Charge, Telecommunications Relay Service, E911, Subscriber line charges, Transport Interconnection Charges, Residual Interconnection charges, and compensation to payphone service providers for the use of their payphones to access the Company's service.

2.18 Individual Case Basis (ICB) Arrangements

Private line services will be made available to customers in a nondiscriminatory manner. Rates for local exchange dedicated access, private line, non-switched services will be determined on an Individual Case Basis (ICB). ICB rates will be structured to recover the Company's cost of providing the service and will be made available to the Missouri Public Service Commission Staff upon request on a proprietary basis. ICB rates will not be used for switched services.
