WITHDRAWAL OF STAFF MOTION

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission and states as follows:

1. On December 30, 2010, the Staff filed a Motion to Cancel the certificate of service authority granted on July 9, 2005, to NextG Networks Central (“the Company”), because it reported no Missouri jurisdictional revenue for the past two years. Staff’s motivation for its filing was not to be punitive, but to merely remove those telecommunications companies not actively involved in providing services in Missouri to better maintain the Commission’s records.

2. On January 10, 2011, the Staff received the attached e-mail, in which the company indicates that it is actively seeking to conduct telecommunications business in Missouri. The Staff’s Motion, if granted, could impede the Company’s ability to offer telecommunications services in Missouri, which the Staff views as an undesirable result.

WHEREFORE, Staff withdraws its Motion to cancel the Certificate of Service Authority and tariff for NextG Networks Central and asks that this matter be closed without further Commission action.

Respectfully submitted,

Cully,

Thank you for your time on the telephone today. As per our discussion I am sending this email to request withdrawal of Staff's Motion for Cancellation of Certificate of Service Authority of NextG Networks of Illinois, Inc. dba NextG Networks Central ("NextG"). As I mentioned to you when we spoke, NextG is actively pursuing contractual relationships in the State of Missouri at this time. If NextG were to execute an agreement to provide service without its authorization, this would impact NextG's ability to initiate service. Therefore, it would be beneficial if the company is allowed to retain its current certification.

It is my understanding that upon receipt of this email you will initiate withdrawal of Staff's Motion. Please let me know if your understanding varies in anyway. NextG would appreciate receiving a copy of the notice to withdraw Staff's Motion. After our call I also verified that NextG's contact information has been updated when it filed its annual report for 2010 in the EFIS system.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Respectfully submitted,
