- A. Sheet Numbering - Sheet numbers appear in the upper right corner of the page. Sheets are numbered sequentially. However, new sheets are occasionally added to the tariff. When a new sheet is added between sheets already in effect, a decimal is added. For example, a new sheet added between sheets 8 and 9 would be 8.1.
- B. Sheet Revision Numbers - Revision numbers also appears in the upper right corner of each page. These numbers are used to determine the most current version on file with the Missouri Public Service Commission. For example, the 3rd revised Sheet 8 cancels the 2nd revised Sheet 8.
- C. Paragraph Number Sequences - There are nine levels of paragraph coding. Each level of coding is subservient to its next higher level.

SECTION 1 - RULES AND REGULATIONS

FEB 29 1996

MISSOURI
Public Service Commission*1.1 Undertaking of the Carrier

The Company's services and facilities are furnished for communications originating and terminating within the state of Missouri under the terms of this tariff.

1.2 Limitations

1.2.1 Service is offered subject to the availability of the necessary facilities and equipment, or both facilities and equipment, and subject to the provisions of this tariff.

1.2.2 The Company reserves the right to discontinue or limit services when the service is being used in violation of provisions of this tariff, or in violation of the law.

1.2.3 The services provided under this tariff are directly or indirectly controlled by the Company and the Customer may not alter or affect the services nor transfer or assign its use of services without the express written consent of the Company, which consent may be withheld, without limitation, by A.B.T.S. International Corp. d/b/a Intelnet in its sole discretion at any time such alteration, effect, transfer, or assignment would result in an interruption of the services or a change in the Customer's locations to which the services are to be provided.

1.2.4 In the event prior written permission from the Company is given for any assignment or transfer, all regulations and conditions contained in this tariff shall apply to all such permitted assignees or transferee.

1.2.5 Service may be discontinued without notice by blocking traffic to certain cities, or NXX exchanges, or by blocking calls using certain authorization codes, when the Company deems it necessary to take such action to prevent unlawful use of its services. Service will be restored as soon as it can be provided without undue risk to the Company, its customers and users of the service.

1.2 Limitations (Continued)MISSOURI
Public Service Commission

1.2.6 A customer shall not use any service mark or trademark of the Company or refer to the Company in connection with any product, equipment, promotion, or publications without the prior written consent of the Company.

1.2.7 No agent or employee of any customer or another entity shall be deemed to be an agent or employee of the Company without prior written authority from the Company.

1.3 Liability of the Company

The Company has no liability for damages arising out of mistakes, interruption, delays, errors, omissions, additions, or defects in the transmission occurring in the course of furnishing services or facilities. The Company's liability for such damages occurring in the course of furnishing the service or facilities but not caused by its gross negligence or willful misconduct or that of its employees or agents, in no event shall exceed an amount that is equivalent to the proportionate charge to the Customer for the period during which such mistakes, interruption, delays, errors, omissions, additions, or defects occur.

1.4 Interruption of Service

1.4.1 Credit allowance for the interruption of service is subject to the general liability provisions set forth herein. The Customer shall receive no credit allowance for the interruption of service which is due to the failure of channels or equipment provided by the Customer. It shall be the obligation of the Customer to notify the Company immediately of any interruption in service for which a credit allowance is claimed. Before giving such notice, the Customer shall ascertain that the trouble is not being caused by any action or omission within the Customer's control, or is not in wiring or equipment, if any, furnished by the the Customer in connection with the Company's services or facilities.

1.7 Payment and BillingMISSOURI
Public Service Commission

- 1.7.1 The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges for services furnished.
- 1.7.2 Billing will be payable upon receipt. Interest at the rate of 1.50% per month (unless a lower rate is prescribed by law, in which event at the highest rate allowed by law) will accrue upon any unpaid amount commencing thirty-five (35) days after date of billing.
- 1.7.3 Any objections to billed charges must be promptly reported to the Company or its billing agent. If notice of a dispute of charges is not received by the Company within thirty (30) days after an invoice is rendered, such invoice may be deemed to be correct and binding. Adjustments to invoices shall be made to the extent that circumstances exist which reasonably indicate that such changes are appropriate.
- 1.7.4 In the event the Company incurs fees or expenses, including attorney's fees, in collecting, or attempting to collect any charges owed the Company, the debtor will be liable to the Company for the payment of all such fees and expenses reasonably incurred.
- 1.7.5 A separate charge is imposed on all charges for calls that originate in states which levy a gross receipts tax on the Company's operations. This charge is based upon a factor of the gross receipts tax and any other applicable taxes imposed directly or indirectly upon the Company.
- 1.7.6 When payment for services is made by check or draft and is returned to the Company for any reason, including but not limited to insufficient funds, a charge of $35.00, unless a lower fee has been prescribed by law in which event a charge equal to such lower fee, may be made by the Company for each item returned by the banking institution on which it is written.
- 1.7.7 If a check, draft or other payment instrument remitted to Carrier is dishonored more than once during a twelve (12) month period, the Company may refuse acceptance of further such payment methods and place the debtor on a cash basis. Under a cash basis, the Company may require payment in the form of U.S. currency, money orders, or an instrument that is guaranteed or issued by a third party that is acceptable to the Company.

1.8.1 The Company may immediately discontinue the furnishing of service(s) to a customer, upon written notice and without incurring any liability, as required:

- A) upon non-payment of any sum owing to the Company for more than twenty-eight (28) days beyond the rendering of a bill for service;
- B) upon a violation of any of the provisions governing the furnishing of service under this tariff or any applicable laws, rules or regulations;
- C) upon an order of a court or other government authority having jurisdiction which prohibits the Company from furnishing service;
- D) upon material misrepresentation of identity in obtaining service or the use of service in a manner that in the opinion of the Company constitutes fraud or abuse.

1.8.2 Service shall not be disconnected unless written notice is sent or delivered to the Customer at least five (5) days prior to the date of the proposed discontinuance.

1.8.3 Discontinuance of service(s) by the Company pursuant to this tariff shall not relieve any obligation of a debtor to pay the Company for charges due and owing for service(s) furnished up to the time of discontinuance.

Access Code

A sequence of numbers that, when dialed, connects a Consumer to an interexchange carrier that is associated with that sequence. Dialing sequences which utilize a 950-10XX, 1-800, or 10XXX prefix are examples of access code arrangements available to Customers.

Access Arrangement

The facility from a local exchange carrier or other common carrier which connects a subscriber's location to the Company's point of presence in a LATA. Presubscription is an example of an access arrangement used by the Company.

Accounting Code

A code consisting of two or more digits which is available to Customers for identifying individual users and thereby allocate the cost of long distance service.

Application for Service

A standard order form which includes all pertinent billing, technical, administrative, and other descriptive information which will enable the Company to provide telecommunications service to a Customer.

Authorization Code

Unique numeric codes (usually consisting of five or more digits), which may be made available to Customers and authorized users to identify themselves as being entitled to access and use the Company's services.

Authorized User

An individual, firm, corporation, or other entity authorized by the Customer to utilize communications services provided by the Company.

Billed Party

The individual or entity responsible for the payment of charges associated with calls placed using services provided by the Company.
