- (C) Installation of special arrangement work is considered to have started when the Company incurs any cost including cancellation penalties imposed on the Company by its vendors in connection therewith or in preparation thereof which would not otherwise have been incurred, provided the Customer has given the Company prior authorization to undertake the special arrangement.

2.10.3 Cancellation During a Multi-Year Contract(1) Cancellation During the First Year

The Customer is liable for full payment for the remainder of the first year at the one year monthly rate, plus the current monthly contract rate times the number of full unexpired years remaining in the contract. For example, if the charge for a certain service is $1,000 per month for a five year contract, and $1,500 per month for a one year contract, and a Customer contracts for five years, but cancels after six months, that Customer would owe $(6 \times $1,500) + ($1,000 \times 4) = $13,000.00$.

It can be defined as the available contract term for service which directly precedes the term under which the Customer contracted, in other words, the rate for the previous term. For example, if a Customer signs a five year contract for a service which also has rates for one and three years, and the Customer cancels the fourth year, the previous term monthly rate is the rate for a three year contract.

If any of the previously mentioned contracts are renewed automatically and penalties are imposed for early cancellation, then the Company must notify the Customer sixty (60) days prior to the expiration date of the contracts.
