	JOINT USER SERVICE NOV 30 1982
1.	Joint user service is an arrangement whereby an individual, [firm)UN or corporation, whose telephone needs are not such as to justify Commission the provision of separate subscriber service, is permitted to use the service of a subscriber. Upon written application by the subscriber, the Telephone Company will extend service to joint users, except that not more than two joint users will be permitted for each access line or for each access line of a commercial P.B.X. system. Joint user service is not furnished in situations where a subscriber is engaged in a business of renting office space on a transient or permanent basis, or for other reasons desires to furnish telephone service to his clients.
2.	To facilitate the use of joint user service, a directory listing is included as a part of the classification, and additional list- ings may be furnished joint users under the same conditions as to regular subscribers. Listings for joint user service must bear the same address and telephone number as the listing of the access line.
3.	Joint users are permitted only in connection with a business access line, residence one party access line, and P.B.X. service. The joint users must be located in the same office or suite of offices as the subscriber, and in connection with residence service, in the same household.
4.	Company provided instruments may be furnished for the use of joint users at the applicable station rates.
5. ;	Joint user service shall be furnished only at the request of the subscriber to the access line, who shall make application there- for, and shall be responsible for the payment of all charges in- curred thereunder.
6.	Charges for joint user service date from the day the contract is executed, and are payable monthly in advance. The minimum charge for joint GANCELLED for a directory period except,

REGEIVED GENERAL EXCHANGE SERVICE TARIFF DEC - 1 1986 GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS MISSOURI Public Service Commission RURAL LINE SERVICE

- 1. Rural Line Multi-party service will be furnished to applicants located outside the local Base Rate Area and on established pole lines, but within the local Exchange Area at the rates shown in the Local Exchange Service Tariff. Only the type or types of service for which a rate is quoted will be furnished. In no case will new contracts be accepted for less than five main station telephones per line, or the equivalent rate therefor.
- 2. New rural lines will be established outside the Local Base Rate Area only when, in the judgment of the Telephone Company, there appears to be sufficient demand for the service to warrant the construction costs involved.
- 3. Rural Line Service may be furnished for special business of a temporary nature which may not remain in a fixed location for any considerable length of time. In such cases, the subscriber may be required to pay the entire cost of the new construction necessary to establish service.
- 4. The Company reserves the right to connect business and residence stations to the same line. No keys or switches for the purpose of cutting off all or a portion of the line from the central office are permitted except in the case of an extension station where a key may be provided for disconnecting it from the main station.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

RADIOTELEPHONE, DIAL

A. REGULATIONS

- 1. General
 - a. Dial radiotelephone service is offered for use by the public at exchanges in which the equipment might be available. This shall consist of "mobile units" (units installed in vehicles), "fixed units" (units installed in locations other than vehicles), "base station" (equipment through which both mobile and fixed units contact the dial central office equipment), and "tower" (receiving and sending antennas which are connected to the base station).
 - b. Mobile and fixed units can call or be called by any other telephone connected to the central office equipment in the exchange in which their radiotelephone service is provided. They can also communicate with "Long Distance", as other subscribers do. They can also communicate with each other.

FILED

JAN 14 1960

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

- c. All equipment is owned, installed and maintained by the telephone company.
- d. Minimum period of service shall be twelve months. Should the subscriber terminate service earlier, he shall pay for the unused portion of the minimum period at the rate being charged for the service at the time of termination.
- e. Rates are shown in Section II of this Tariff.
