ORDER DIRECTING COMPLAINANT TO FILE A STATEMENT

Issue Date: November 5, 2012

Effective Date: November 5, 2012

After cancelling a prehearing conference that was to be held on November 29, 2011, the judge, on January 23, 2012, spoke with the complainant, Ted Brown, by telephone regarding his ability/intent to proceed with this matter. Mr. Brown informed the judge that his ability to effectively proceed with this complaint is hampered by other matters he must attend to. This matter was stayed to allow Complainant to attend to other matters. Complainant was asked to contact the judge when he was able to proceed.

After the expiration of 5 months, on June 13, 2012, the Commission directed Complainant to file a statement of his intention to pursue this matter. On June 19, Complainant filed a motion to further stay this matter.

It is now November of 2012 and there has been no further activity. The Commission will therefore direct Complainant to file a statement informing the Commission of available dates, before the end of the year, on which Complainant will be able to attend a prehearing conference. The prehearing conference is necessary in order to move this matter toward resolution. If the matter is dismissed, Complainant may refile his complaint under a new case number when he is ready to proceed.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. No later than November 15, 2012, Ted Brown, Complainant, shall file a statement as described in the body of this order.
2. This order shall become effective upon issuance.
