Re: Halo Wireless, Inc. v. Craw-Kan Telephone Cooperative, Inc. et al.
Case No. TC-2012-0331 – Notice of Supplemental Authorities - Wisconsin

Dear Secretary of the Commission:

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, d/b/a AT&T Missouri (“AT&T Missouri”), respectfully submits the attached order the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (“PSCW”) issued on July 27, 2012, as Supplemental Authority in current proceeding before the Missouri Commission in Case No. TC-2012-0331:

Investigation into Practices of Halo Wireless, Inc., and Transcom Enhanced Services, Inc., Final Decision, Docket No. 9594-TI-100, issued July 27, 2012.

AT&T Missouri’s Brief filed on July 23, 2012, in support of the Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law (jointly filed with the RLECs in this proceeding), reported the results of the PSCW’s vote in that docket, and stated that AT&T Missouri would file the PSCWs’ written order when available.

As reflected in the attached order, the PSCW has held that Transcom is not an Enhanced Service Provider; that AT&T Wisconsin may terminate its interconnection agreement (“ICA”) with Halo, or suspend performance under the ICA, in light of Halo’s breach of the ICA; and that the traffic at issue is subject to access charges.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Bub
