The filing submission option box on the front cover of the report was not checked. This information allows the Commission Staff to properly designate your submission either public or non-public.

Since your preference was not indicated, the Commission has entered your report as PUBLIC, if this designation is incorrect please notify the Commission immediately so that we can change the status.

If you wish to elect the Highly Confidential status, there are additional materials that are required to be filed pursuant to Commission rule 4 CSR 204-3.540, Section 392.210, RsMo., and/or Section 393.140, RsMo. These items were listed in the cover letter you received with your annual report form, and for your convenience, a copy of that letter is attached.
