ACCESS SERVICES

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS-(Continued)

A. (Continued)

If the Telephone Company does not discontinue service, refuse additional applications for service and/or refuse to complete any pending orders on the date specified in the thirty (30) days' notice, and the customer's noncompliance continues, nothing contained herein shall preclude the Telephone Company's right to refuse additional applications for service to the noncomplying customer without further notice.

B. If the IC or End User fails to comply with the provisions of this Tariff in connection with the provision of a service or group of services and fails to correct such course of action after notice as set forth in A., preceding, the Telephone Company may refuse applications for additional services until the course of action is corrected to the satisfaction of the Telephone Company.

C. The Telephone Company reserves the right to refuse service to any applicant who is found to be indebted to the Telephone Company until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of such indebtedness.

The Telephone Company may also refuse to furnish service to an applicant desiring to establish service for former customers or previous customers who are indebted to the Telephone Company until satisfactory arrangements have been made for payment of such indebtedness.

D. If Access Service is established and it is subsequently determined that either condition in C., preceding, exists, the Telephone Company may suspend or disconnect such service after five days' written notice, until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of the prior indebtedness.

E. When Access Service is provided by more than one Telephone Company, the companies involved in providing the joint service may individually or collectively deny service to a customer for nonpayment. Where the Telephone Company (Companies) affected by the nonpayment is (are) incapable of effecting discontinuance of service without cooperation from the other joint provider(s) of Switched Access Service, such other Telephone Company (Companies) will, if technically feasible, assist in denying the joint service to the customer. Service denial for such joint service will only include calls which originate or terminate within, or transit, the operating territory of the Telephone Company (Companies) initiating the service denial for nonpayment. When more than one of the joint providers must deny service to effectuate termination for nonpayment, in cases where a conflict exists in the applicable tariff provisions, the tariff regulations of the end office Telephone Company shall apply for joint service discontinuance.

2.1.7 Provision and Ownership of Telephone Numbers

The IC and the End User have no property rights to telephone number assignments or any other call number designations associated with Access Services. The Telephone Company reserves the right to assign, designate or change such numbers, or the telephone serving central office prefixes associated with such numbers, when reasonably necessary in the conduct of its business. Should it become necessary to make a change in such number(s), the Telephone Company will furnish to the customer six (6) months notice, by certified U.S. mail, of the effective date and an explanation of the reason(s) for such change(s).

2.1.8 Technical References

The Telephone Company will publish Technical References which the IC can obtain as an aid in selecting the appropriate service interface and feature arrangements.

Upon request, the Telephone Company will furnish network interface information required by the FCC's Rules and Regulations.
