Good afternoon Judge Stearley,

My preference would be for the data center to file my e-mail. Thank you for your understanding.

Good afternoon Mr. Young. I appreciate your notice. I was wondering if you couldn't file this notice in the File – in EFIS. It would not be a substantive pleading or a representation, it would simply communicate the information you have relayed. If you feel that you cannot file this as a notice in the case. I will have our data center file a copy of the e-mail so we have it clear in the file as to why you are stating that you are unable to comply with today's deadline.

Dear Judge Stearley,

I am writing to you in my personal capacity and on behalf of my colleague Lou Huber, who has also entered an appearance in this matter as local counsel for Halo Wireless, Inc. Last week, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court (E.D.Tex) converted Halo Wireless Inc.'s bankruptcy case to a Chapter 7 case and appointed a trustee for Halo Wireless, Inc. At present, our firm is not authorized to make any filing in response to today's deadline, or to take any other action or make any representation on behalf of Halo Wireless, Inc. As members of the Missouri Bar, we wish to advise you of the circumstances out of respect for you and the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

Daniel Young
