TARIFF FORMAT

- A. Sheet Numbering — Sheet numbers appear in the upper-right corner of the sheet. Sheets are numbered sequentially. When a new sheet is added between sheets already in effect, a decimal is added. For example, a new sheet added between Sheets Nos. 7 and 8 would be Sheet No. 7.01.
- B. Sheet Revision Numbers — Revision numbers also appear in the upper-right corner of the sheet. These numbers are used to determine the most current sheet version on file with the Commission. For example, the 2nd revised Sheet No. 7 cancels the 1st revised Sheet No. 7. Because of various suspension periods, deferrals, etc. the Commission follows in their Tariff approval process, the most current sheet number on file with the Commission is not always the tariff page in effect.
- C. Paragraph Numbering Sequence - There are eight levels of paragraph coding. Each level of coding is subservient to its next higher level of coding.

4.3 Integrated Services Digital Network – Primary Rate Interface (ISDN-PRI) (C)

4.3.1 General (N)

- A. ISDN-PRI is an IntraLATA group of offerings supported by the Integrated Services Digital Network (ISDN) architecture.
- B. ISDN-PRI provides a method of access to the telephone network called Primary Rate Interface. PRI is an ISDN based T1 link to the telecommunications network and provides integrated digital channels for voice, data, and video applications. The service will initially provide connectivity between an ISDN PBX or other ISDN-compatible Customer Premises Equipment (CPE) and a serving central office. The basic channel structure for PRI is twenty-three (23) 64 Kbps B channels and one (1) 64 Kbps D channel. The B channels may be used to connect the PBX or ISDN compatible CPE to the public circuit switched network (i.e., inward/outward calls, OutWats/TFC, or to tie lines, and FX service access lines). The D channel carries the signaling and call set-up information for the B channels.
- C. ISDN-PRI is a service for the transmission of digital signals only.
- D. ISDN-PRI is provided within a LATA from wire centers where appropriate ISDN facilities are available, as determined by the Company. Service inquiries will be necessary to determine availability. If new equipment or facilities and/or changes to existing equipment/facilities are required for the provision of this service, special construction charges will apply, in addition to the applicable ISDN-PRI rates. - D. Suspension of service is not permitted with this service.
- E. The minimum subscription period for which month-to-month PRI is furnished and for which charges are applicable is one month.
- F. OutWATS/TFC services utilizing ISDN-PRI are available as well as tie lines and FX/FCO are available.
- G. Verification and Emergency Interrupt service is not available for ISDN-PRI.

3. Primary Rate B-Channels (cont'd)

d. Call-by-Call/Integrated Service Access (ISA) Feature Capability - Allows the customers to dynamically allocate the use of channels for ISDN-PRI services. The customer may also choose voice or data transmission on a per call basis. ISA charges are based on the number of Virtual Facility Groups (VFG) established in the Company's central office. The Company will apply a VFG charge for each call type requested by the customer, for example, Public Access (incoming, outgoing), private network traffic, tie line. Additional VFG charges may be applicable if the customer wishes the Company to provide more call control in the central office.

e. D-Channel Access - Carries the signaling information for circuit switching needs of the ISDN B-channels. Where end user access arrangements contain multiple PRI's the signaling in one interface structure may also carry signaling for B-channels in another PRI structure without an activated D-channel. The D-channel contains Call Set Up, Call Tear Down, and Calling Number identification.

f. D Channel Backup - Provides backup for the D channel for a customer with multiple PRI lines by automatically switching signaling capability over to another D channel if service to the primary D channel is interrupted.

2. Calling Line Information Delivery - This feature, inherent in PRI, provides the customer with the telephone number of the calling party. Incoming call identification is provided via the D-channel associated with incoming calls on a B-channel(s) to a PBX.

5. OPTIONAL SERVICES5.1 CLASS Services

Custom Local Area Signaling Services (CLASS Services) provide end-user services that allow the Customer more control over incoming and outgoing calls based on Signaling System 7 (SS7) hardware and software. The following services are offered where technically feasible.

5.1.1 Caller ID

Caller ID enables the subscriber to view on a display unit the Calling Party Directory Number (the "CPN") on incoming telephone calls.

When Caller ID is activated on a subscriber's line, the CPNs of incoming calls are displayed on the subscriber's display unit during the first long silent interval of the ringing cycle.

When Caller ID Call Waiting is activated on a subscriber's line, this feature enables a customer to view on a Customer-provided display device the calling party's name and/or telephone number associated with an incoming Call Waiting call, unless the name and telephone number of the calling party is suppressed. (N)

Per line blocking for the blocking of the subscriber's CPN will be available upon request, at no charge, to the following entities for lines over which the official business of the agency is conducted, including those at the residences of employees/volunteers, where an executive officer of the agency registers a need for blocking and provides the required certification to the Company: a) private, nonprofit, tax-exempt, domestic violence intervention agencies and b) federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies. The CPN will not be transmitted from a line equipped with this capability. Per line blocking is operational on a continuous basis but can be deactivated by the subscriber by dialing an access code immediately prior to placing a call.

Line blocking subscribers can unblock their CPN information on a per call basis, at no charge, by dialing an access code (*82 on their Touch Tone pad or 1182 from a rotary phone) immediately prior to placing a call.

A subscriber may prevent the delivery of their calling name and/or number to the called party by dialing an access code (*67 on their Touch Tone pad or 1167 from a rotary phone) immediately prior to placing a call. The access code will activate per call blocking, which is available at no charge. If the calling party activates blocking, the CPN will not be transmitted across the line to the called party. Instead, Caller ID subscribers will receive an anonymous indicator. This anonymous indicator notifies the Caller ID subscriber that the calling party has elected to block the delivery of their name and telephone number. The blocking of CPN will not be provided on calls originating from a Customer-Owned Pay Telephone Service.

Any Customer subscribing to Caller ID will be responsible for the provision of a display device which will be located on the subscriber's premises. The installation, repair, and technical capability of that equipment to function in conjunction with the features specified herein will be the responsibility of the subscriber. The Company assumes no liability and will be held harmless for any incompatibility of this equipment to perform satisfactorily with the network features described herein.

Telephone CPN information transmitted via Caller ID is intended solely for the use of the Caller ID subscriber. Resale of this information is prohibited by this Tariff. The CPN will not be displayed if the called party is off-hook or if the called party answers during the first ring interval. CPN will be displayed for calls made from another central office only if it is linked by appropriate facilities. Caller ID is not available on operator-handled calls.

5.1.2 Call Forwarding

Call Forwarding allows the subscriber to have calls forwarded to a designated remote Station.

5.1.3 Call Forwarding Busy

(N)

This feature automatically reroutes an incoming call to a Customer pre-designated number when the called number is busy.

5.1.4 Call Waiting

Call Waiting informs a subscriber, when busy on one call, that another call is waiting.

5.1.5 Three-Way Calling

Three-Way Calling allows the subscriber to connect to two other numbers at once.

5.1.6 Six-Way Calling

Six-Way Calling allows the subscriber to connect up to five other numbers at once. Six-Way Calling is only available to Customers with ISDN services.

5.1.7 Call Return

Call Return permits a subscriber to have a call automatically returned to the last party who called. If that line is busy when the recall attempt is made, the call is queued until both the subscriber and the last calling party are idle, at which point the subscriber is rung first. When the subscriber answers, the last calling party is rung to complete the call.

5.1.8 Selective Call Forwarding

Selective Call Forwarding allows the subscriber to have certain terminating calls forwarded to a designed remote Station. The activity will occur whenever a call is received from a directory number which has been indicated on a list of numbers referred to as the Selective Call Forwarding screening list. Calls from directory numbers which cannot be identified or have not been indicated on the list will be given standard terminating treatment.

5.1.9 Automatic Redial

Automatic Callback permits a subscriber encountering a busy connection to have call setup performed automatically when the called station becomes idle. This feature is designed to automatically set up a call to the last telephone number called by the subscriber, regardless of whether the called telephone number was busy or idle, answered, or unanswered. If the call cannot be completed immediately because of a busy line, the call is queued and call completion is attempted when both lines are idle. As part of the completion attempt, the calling subscriber is given special ringing, and when the called subscriber answers, the calling subscriber is given regular ringing.

5.1.10 Remote Access Call Forwarding

Remote Access Call Forwarding allows a subscriber to initiate Call Forwarding activation and deactivation from a location other than the subscribing Station.

5.1.11 Speed Calling 8

Speed Calling 8 permits the subscriber to program up to eight numbers that can be dialed automatically, using special Station equipment.

5.1.12 Call Trace

Call Trace allows the Customer to initiate a trace on the last incoming call by dialing an activation code. The call will be traced automatically, and the telephone number that originated the call and the time the call was made will be recorded in the Company office. Information recorded will be released by the Company only to an authorized representative of a law enforcement agency and, in no event, other than as provided by applicable state and federal law. Call Trace will be made available to all Customers. Charges for the services will be made on a per-call basis when the Customer uses the activation code and the number is successfully retrieved.

5.1.13 Teen Ring

This feature allows the Customer to have an additional telephone number assigned to one local exchange line. Each telephone number will provide a distinctive ring on incoming calls to allow for identification of the incoming call.

5.1.14 Anonymous Call Rejection

Allows a Customer to redirect incoming calls for which calling name and number display has been suspended through the use of per-call blocking or per-line blocking, to an announcement indicating the Customer is not presently accepting such calls.

5.1.15 Selective Call Rejection

An arrangement that allows a subscriber to selectively block any calls from a list of previously identified directory numbers.

5.1.16 Call Blocking

Blocking service is a feature that permits customers to restrict access from their telephone line to various discretionary services.

5.1.17 Remote Call Forwarding Service

Remote Call Forwarding Service provides automatic forwarding of all incoming calls placed to a seven-digit Remote Call Forwarding number to a termination telephone number in the same or a different exchange. This service is available only in exchanges served by suitably equipped electronic central offices, to the extent that existing facilities are available.

This service is furnished upon condition that the customer subscribed to adequate Remote Call Forwarding and terminating facilities to permit the use of the service without impairment, disruption or deterioration of the quality of other telephone services.

If in the opinion of the Telephone Company additional Remote Call Forwarding Service or termination facilities are needed, the customer must subscribe to additional service or facilities. If the customer refuses to subscribe to adequate Remote Call Forwarding or terminating facilities, the Remote Call Forwarding service is subject to termination.

The Telephone Company does not provide identification of the originating telephone number to the Remote Call Forwarding customer.

No assurance can be given that transmission will be fully satisfactory during operation of Remote Call Forwarding.

Remote Call Forwarding Service entitles the user to one directory listing in the alphabetical section of the directory.

Additional listings are available at the additional listing rate.

Between the calling party and the Remote Call Forwarding number the calling party is charged the appropriate toll rate. Between the Remote Call Forwarding number and the terminating telephone number the Remote Call Forwarding customer is charged the customer dialed station-to-station rate. If the terminating number is a toll free service, then the toll free usage rates apply. These rates apply for person-to-person and collect calls made to a Remote Call Forwarding number even though such calls might not be accepted at the answering location.

8 SPECIAL CONSTRUCTION (continued)

8.3 Rights-of-way and Easements

- A. Within the applicant's subdivision, the Company will construct, own, operate, and maintain telephone lines only along public streets, roads, and highways which the Company has the legal right to occupy, and on public lands and private property across which rights-of-way and easements satisfactory to the Company may be obtained without cost or need for condemnation by the Company.
- B. Rights-of-way and easements within the subdivision, satisfactory to the Company, must be furnished by the applicant in reasonable time to meet construction and service requirements before the Company shall be required to commence its installation. Such rights-of-way and easements must be cleared of trees, tree stumps, and other obstructions and graded to within six inches of final grade by applicant at no charge to the Company. Such clearance and grading must be maintained by the applicant during construction by the Company.

8.4 Advance Payments

- A. Where, due to the manner in which a subdivision is developed, the Company is required to construct an underground telephone distribution system, pursuant to 4 CSR 240-30.020, through a section or sections of the subdivision where service will not be connected for at least two years, then the Company may require an advance payment equal to the estimated cost of construction from the applicant before construction is commenced. If in the judgment of the Company an advance is required under the above-described conditions, the Company has the right to refuse installation of the system until the required advance is paid to the Company.
