RE: Request for Voluntary Cancellation of Certificate of Service Authority and Tariff, AccessLine Communications Corporation

To Whom it May Concern:

AccessLine Communications Corporation (“ACC”) respectfully notifies the Missouri Public Service Commission that it is voluntarily requesting cancellation of its certificate of service authority to provide interexchange telecommunications services and the withdrawal of its tariff,¹ with an effective date of May 19, 2026.

The public convenience and necessity will not be adversely affected by the action described herein. ACC does not offer or provide any intrastate telecommunications services to Missouri customers pursuant to the above-referenced certificate, and therefore no customer’s services will be interrupted or disconnected.

To ensure that the Commission’s records are updated, the company point of contact is:

Susan Desgrouilliers, Senior Manager, Regulatory and Tax Compliance; Phone: 650-352-4216; Email: sdesgrouilliers@intermedia.com.

If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Glenn S. Richards
Counsel for AccessLine Communications Corporation
4936-2311-2615 v1 [109650-2]

¹ ACC was issued a certificate of service authority to provide interexchange telecommunications services on July 13, 2007, in Case No. XA-2007-0467, and tariff number YX-2007-0884.
