ORDER DENYING REQUEST FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Issue Date: August 24, 2026

Effective Date: August 24, 2026

On July 22, 2026,¹ Evergy Missouri West, Inc. d/b/a Evergy Missouri West (Evergy) filed its Motion for Protective Order and for Expedited Treatment (Motion) requesting a Protective Order concerning disclosure of its confidential and highly-confidential information through unsecured or generative artificial intelligence (AI) tools, platforms, systems, or similar technology. Evergy requested expedited treatment of its motion.

At its core, the Motion seeks to prohibit any party, counsel, or their agents to whom confidential information is disclosed from inputting, uploading, submitting, or otherwise introducing such information into any unsecured or generative AI Tool (e.g. standard ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini, or similar platforms), including, but not limited to, the use of AI meeting note takers. The Motion proposed five specific protections, which included restrictions on information retention and use as well as requiring disclosure of the AI tool being used by the recipient of the confidential information.

On July 31, the Staff of the Commission (Staff) filed Staff's Response to Evergy Missouri West's Motion for Protective Order and for Expedited Treatment (Staff Response) objecting to the Motion. Staff asserts the Commission's existing confidentiality rule already states the controlling obligation: every person with access to protected information must keep it secure and may neither use nor disclose it except for preparation and conduct of the proceeding. The Staff Response argues that the solution is not to curtail AI or another class of analytical tools, but to enforce the confidentiality duties that already govern both the producer and the recipient of confidential information.

The Staff Response also cited the inequality of allowing Evergy to use any AI tool it wishes but other parties' use of AI would be restricted. Staff further stated that the disclosure of the AI tool used might reveal that party's analytical methods, resource allocation, proprietary software and vendor relationships, litigation preparation methods, or work-product information.

On August 3, the Office of the Public Counsel (OPC) filed Public Counsel's Response in Opposition to Evergy West's Motion for Protective Order (OPC Response) objecting to the Motion. The OPC Response argued that the current Commission Rules regarding protecting confidential information, 20 CSR 4240-2.135(6)-(8), are adequate. The OPC Response argues that the rules obligate one who obtains information designated to be confidential to not disclose it – which would include publishing that information by using unsecured AI tools, platforms, systems, or similar technology.

The Commission is not persuaded by the arguments set forth in Evergy's Motion. The Commission finds OPC's and Staff's arguments more persuasive – the current rules restricting the dissemination of confidential information are sufficient to address any infractions with the submission of confidential information to an unsecured AI tool or analysis of confidential information by an unsecured AI tool. Therefore, the Commission will deny the Motion.

In its Order Approving Demand Side Investment Mechanism Rider Rate Adjustment Tariffs issued on July 17, the Commission scheduled this case to close on August 2. Having addressed the filings described above, the Commission will re-close this case.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The Motion is denied.
2. This order is effective when issued.
3. This case shall close on August 25, 2026.
