Re: Case No. TR-2001-65

Dear Judge Roberts:

Enclosed for filing with the Missouri Public Service Commission in the above-referenced case is an original and eight copies of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's Rebuttal Testimony of Craig A. Unruh.

Also enclosed for filing with the Commission in the above-referenced case are an original and eight copies of the Highly Confidential (HC) version and an original copy of the redacted (NP) version of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's Rebuttal Testimony of David Barch. As required by the Protective Order issued in this case, we are filing Mr. Barch's testimony under seal. This information in Mr. Barch's rebuttal testimony has been designated HC because it represents inputs necessary to determine the costs for providing switched access service in Missouri. This information is market-specific cost information relating to services offered in competition with others and information relating directly to specific customers.

Pursuant to the Missouri Public Service Commission's March 14, 2002, Order Adopting Procedural Schedule, Clarifying the Scope of This Proceeding, and Concerning Motion to Waive Service Requirement and Motion to Compel Discovery, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company hereby notifies parties not represented by counsel that it filed rebuttal testimony on August 1, 2002. This testimony describes Southwestern Bell's and other parties' positions in this case and cost study results for switched access service in Missouri. Any unrepresented party may obtain a copy of the filed material upon request and at no cost. Highly Confidential material will only be distributed in accordance with the Protective Order issued in this case.
